

... and he cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal on him, so that he should deceive the nations no more till the thousand years were finished. But after these things he must be released for a little while.

— Revelation 20:3

Satan comes from and is then imprisoned with the bottomless pit.

Bottomless pit: Greek is _____. This is related to the concept of a place with no foundation or grounding. Very deep. A void.

Mentioned only 7 times in Bible, all are in Revelation.

Revelation 9 (rise of Islam, 3x)

Revelation 11 (Rise of some power, 1x)

Revelation 17 (rise of apostate Christianity at end of time, 1x)

Revelation 20 (2x, binding of Satan to pit).

Answer: This is a power that arises from Satan's foundations. A _____ and open _____ of God.

Question 4: Who does the power attack and ultimately kill?

Answer: The _____.

Question 5: Who is this?

The rise of _____ during the French Revolution is the only fit.

The identifying Markers:

When: takes place around 1798

Revolution dates: 1789-1799

Where: Europe

France

Who: An atheistic kingdom

Only worshiped the Goddess of reason.

What: an attack and killing of Christianity in all its forms

Executed anyone who didn't renounce their religion.

From History:

[T]hen, freed from prejudice and worthy to represent the French nation, you will be able, on the ruins of fallen superstitions, to found the one universal religion, which has neither secrets nor mysteries, whose one dogma is equality, whose orators are the laws, whose pontiffs are the magistrates, which asks no incense from the great human family to burn save before the altar of our country, our mother, and our deity.

— A. Aulard, Christianity and the French Revolution (Boston: Little, Brown, 1927), 104

The Commune of Paris . . . on the 3rd Frimaire of the Year II (24th November, 1793), on the request of Chaumette, . . . decreed "that all the churches and chapels of every religion and sect which exist in Paris shall be closed forthwith," and also that anyone who asked for their reopening should be arrested as a suspicious person.

Aulard, 109